1. The Naval Energy and Environmental Support Activity (NEESA) is conducting by Contract an Initial Assessment Study at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, reference (a). During reference (b), the Command Brief was scheduled for 28 January 1982. Mr. Wallace Eakes of NEESA will present a Command Briefing to the representatives of the Commanding General on the purposes and objectives of the Navy Assessment and Control of Installation Pollutants (NACIP) program and, in particular, on the Initial Assessment Study.
2. The Command Briefing will take about thirty minutes, consisting of a slide presentation, followed by a question and answer period. NEESA has selected an environmental consulting firm, Water and Air Research (WAR) of Gainesville, FL, under Navy Contract N62474-82-C-8273, to conduct the study. Mr. Jerry Steinburg, Mr. Hugh Putman, and Mr. James Sullivan of WAR will be present to participate in the Briefing.
3. The on-site portion of the study has not been scheduled at this time. The Command-designated point of contact, Mr. Julian Wooten, will be notified when arrangements are completed. For further information concerning this study, contact Mr. Eakes, NEESA, Code 112N, A/V 360-3351, FTS-799-3351, or commercial (805) 982-3351.
